

“According to his daughter, who was an astrologer, Jung used this horoscope.”

Communication to me by Karen Hamaker-Zondag

First to do, establishing impact.

Which planets dominate this life by strength?

Planets in pivots, 1st, 10th, 7th, 4th

And/or with  $M^c + J^c$

$\hbar$  in 1st topical place,

$\odot$  in 7th,

$\text{D}$  in 4th

Second thing to do, establishing their quality.

Which of these planets are (very) good?

$\hbar$  in its own domicile  $\text{♋}$

$\odot$  in its own domicile  $\text{♌}$

$\text{D}$  in its exaltation  $\text{♈}$

So these are all pivotal, strong, planets and also quite capable.

They know ‘who’ they are, and what to do in this chart.

But, they are not all about Jung’s personality, but they are representations of (parts of) his life, of topics in his life (of which his personality is but one topic).
